IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When on the bosom of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. — We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. — That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. — Prudence indeed will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to subvert in them a wise absolute Government, it is their right to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. — Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of Government. — The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. — To prove this let Facts be submitted to a candid world. — He has refused his Assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their execution till his Assent should be obtained, and when so suspended, to have entirely neglected to attend to them. — He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, which those people would distinguish the right of Representation in the legislature, a right inseparable to them and formidable to tyrants only. — He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable and distant from the Depository of these Public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures. — He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people. — He has refused for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the legislative powers incapable of interruption have resided to the People at large. So their members the State conventions in the mean time were exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without and concussions within. — He has succeeded to prevent the population of these States for that purpose obstructing the Law for Naturalization of Foreigners, refusing to allow to encourage those who migrate hither and raising the conditions of our Naturalization of Islands. — He has obstructed the Administration of justice by refusing his Assent to laws for establishing judiciary power. — He has made judges dependent on his Will alone for the tenure of their offices and the amount and payment of their salaries. — He has erected a multitude of New Offices and sent hither persons of obscure Inclinations, to fill up the places and cut out their jurisdictions. — He has kept among us in times of peace Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures. — He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power. — He has combined with others subjects us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution and undredicible by our laws giving his Assent to these Acts of pretended Legislation. — For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us. — For protecting them by a mock Trial from Punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States. — For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world. — For enjoining Laws on us without our Consent. — For depriving us in many cases of the benefit of Trial by jury. — For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences. — For abolishing the free System of English law in a neighbouring Province establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to enclose it at once in a ample and fit instrument for introducing Hierarchy absolute rule into these colonies. — For taking away our Charter establishing our most valuable Laws and altering fundamentally the Forms of our governments. — For suspending our own Legislature and declaring themselves invested with Power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever. — He has abdicated Government here by delivering us out of their Protection and弃置 us among the enemies. — He has plundered us in war, ravaged our fields burnt our towns, and extorted the Lives of our people. — He at this time compacting large Summes of foreign Millions to support the works of War, Despotism and Oppression, attorney began with circumstances of wealth & luxury, family, parallelled in the most barbarous ages and brutalizing every thing the House of a civilized nation. — He has constrained our Colonies Subjects taken captive on the high seas to bear Arms against their Country. — He has given the assistance of their friends and Brothers to fill themselves by their hands. — He has excited dissident animosities amongst us and has encouraged to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages sexes and conditions. — In every page of this Oppression we have blazoned for Beispiel in the most horrid terms. Our several Colonies have been assailed by repeated injury. — When these Evils have been insatiate by a spirit of injustice and malice to the whole nation he has spared. — Now we have been warning in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their Legislature to extend an unnatural, illiberal jurisdiction over us. — He has vindicated them of the circumstance of our emigration and settlement here. — He has opposed to their native justice and magnanimity and we have conjured them to the loss of our common kindred to disown these usurpations which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. — They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of humanity. — We must therefore acquiesce in the necessities which dominion our separation and hold them as we hold the rest of mankind. Friends in this, in these Provinces.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress Assembled, appeal to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, on the same and by authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are and of Right ought to be, Free and Independent States; that they are absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved, and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, establish Commerce, and to call into being all the Powers and Resources which Independent States may require, to defend their Liberties and their Sovereignty.

ENJOY YOURSELF

*You work and work for years and years.
You're always on the go.
You never take a minute off,
Too busy making dough.
Someday you say you'll have your fun,
when you're a millionaire
Imagine all the fun you'll have — in your old rocking chair.
Enjoy yourself, it's later than you think,
Enjoy yourself while you're still in the pink.*

RING DAY

November 7, 1975

The Ring Day Ceremony is an event which the Juniors look forward to from their Freshman year on. They remember the work involved in setting up this day when they were Freshmen, and enjoy being on the receiving end. It is a day for reminiscing memories which have accumulated in their two years at D.C. and a day of looking towards the future and good times yet to be had.

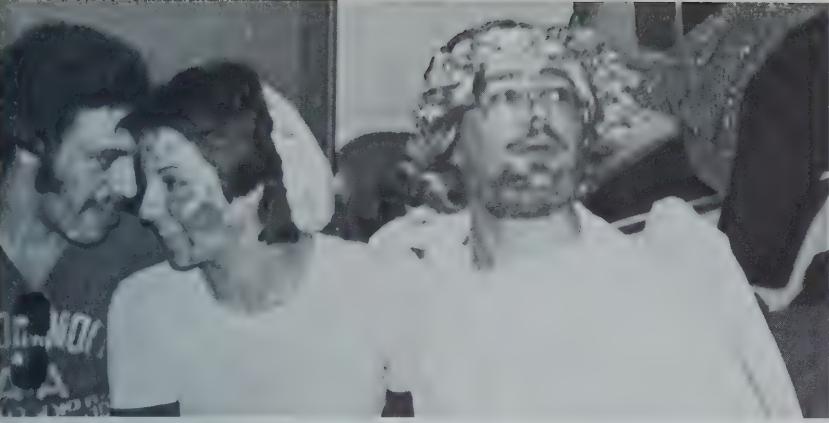

Ring Day is an annual event which is the first major activity in which the Freshmen are involved. The work these students put into developing an interesting and enjoyable day, for the Juniors, is obvious by the end result and good time had by all.

FLAG FOOTBALL

This year at Dominican, a new activity emerged as a result of a challenge posed to us by STAC. Many an afternoon saw D.C. guys practicing flag football for their competition game although we were unsuccessful in the end. The practice and game were enjoyed by all. Maybe, eventually, we'll have a regular team in this sport.

Under the editorship of Maureen Murphy and Carol Paguaga, and the Moderatorship of Sr. Virginia, the newspaper has continued to bring free thought to D.C. students.

LECTURES AT D.C.

As an activity at Dominican lectures were held to acquaint students with various topics.

Last Spring, Sr. Mary McCormick arranged for Dr. Smithdas to speak at D.C. He spoke of the accomplishments a deaf-blind person could achieve and told us of his life. Dr. Smithdas impressed the audience with his accomplishments.

Charles Berlitz, author of THE BERMUDA TRIANGLE, spoke at Dominican on November 19th. He discussed the various disappearances that have occurred in the triangle, and he gave some of his theories on the subject.

Bill Claflin, Coordinator for Alcohol Education for Rockland County, came to D.C. through the aid of our Nursing Department. He spoke on social alcoholism and its effects.

Freshman year is the time of a new awakening.

Students become free to be themselves — self-governed and self-directed.

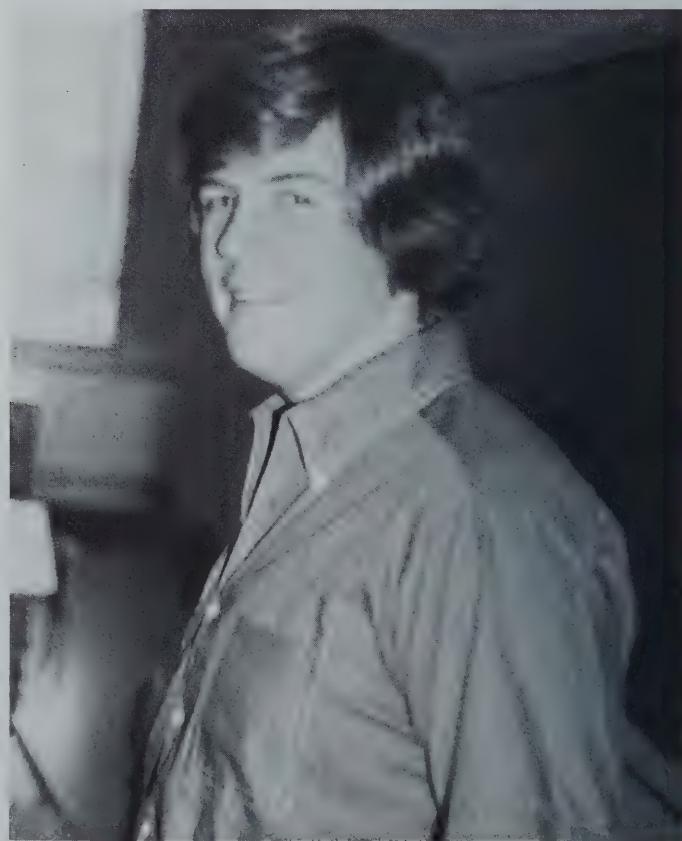

A fresh initiation of ideas, knowledge and experience develops a spirit of freedom and independence.

Sophomore year is a mixture of the familiar with the much still unknown.

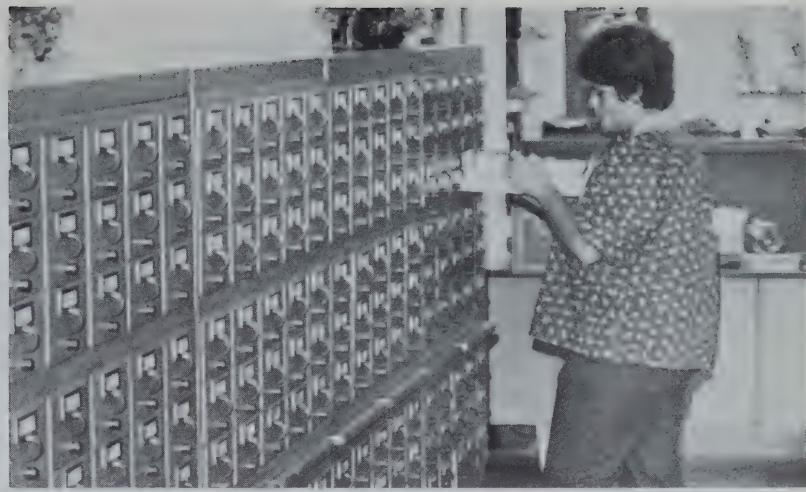

As students move beyond the new found freedom of the first year towards the responsibilities which come with time and self-determination . . .

Junior year is characterized by an eagerness to complete the framework that was started such a short eternity ago.

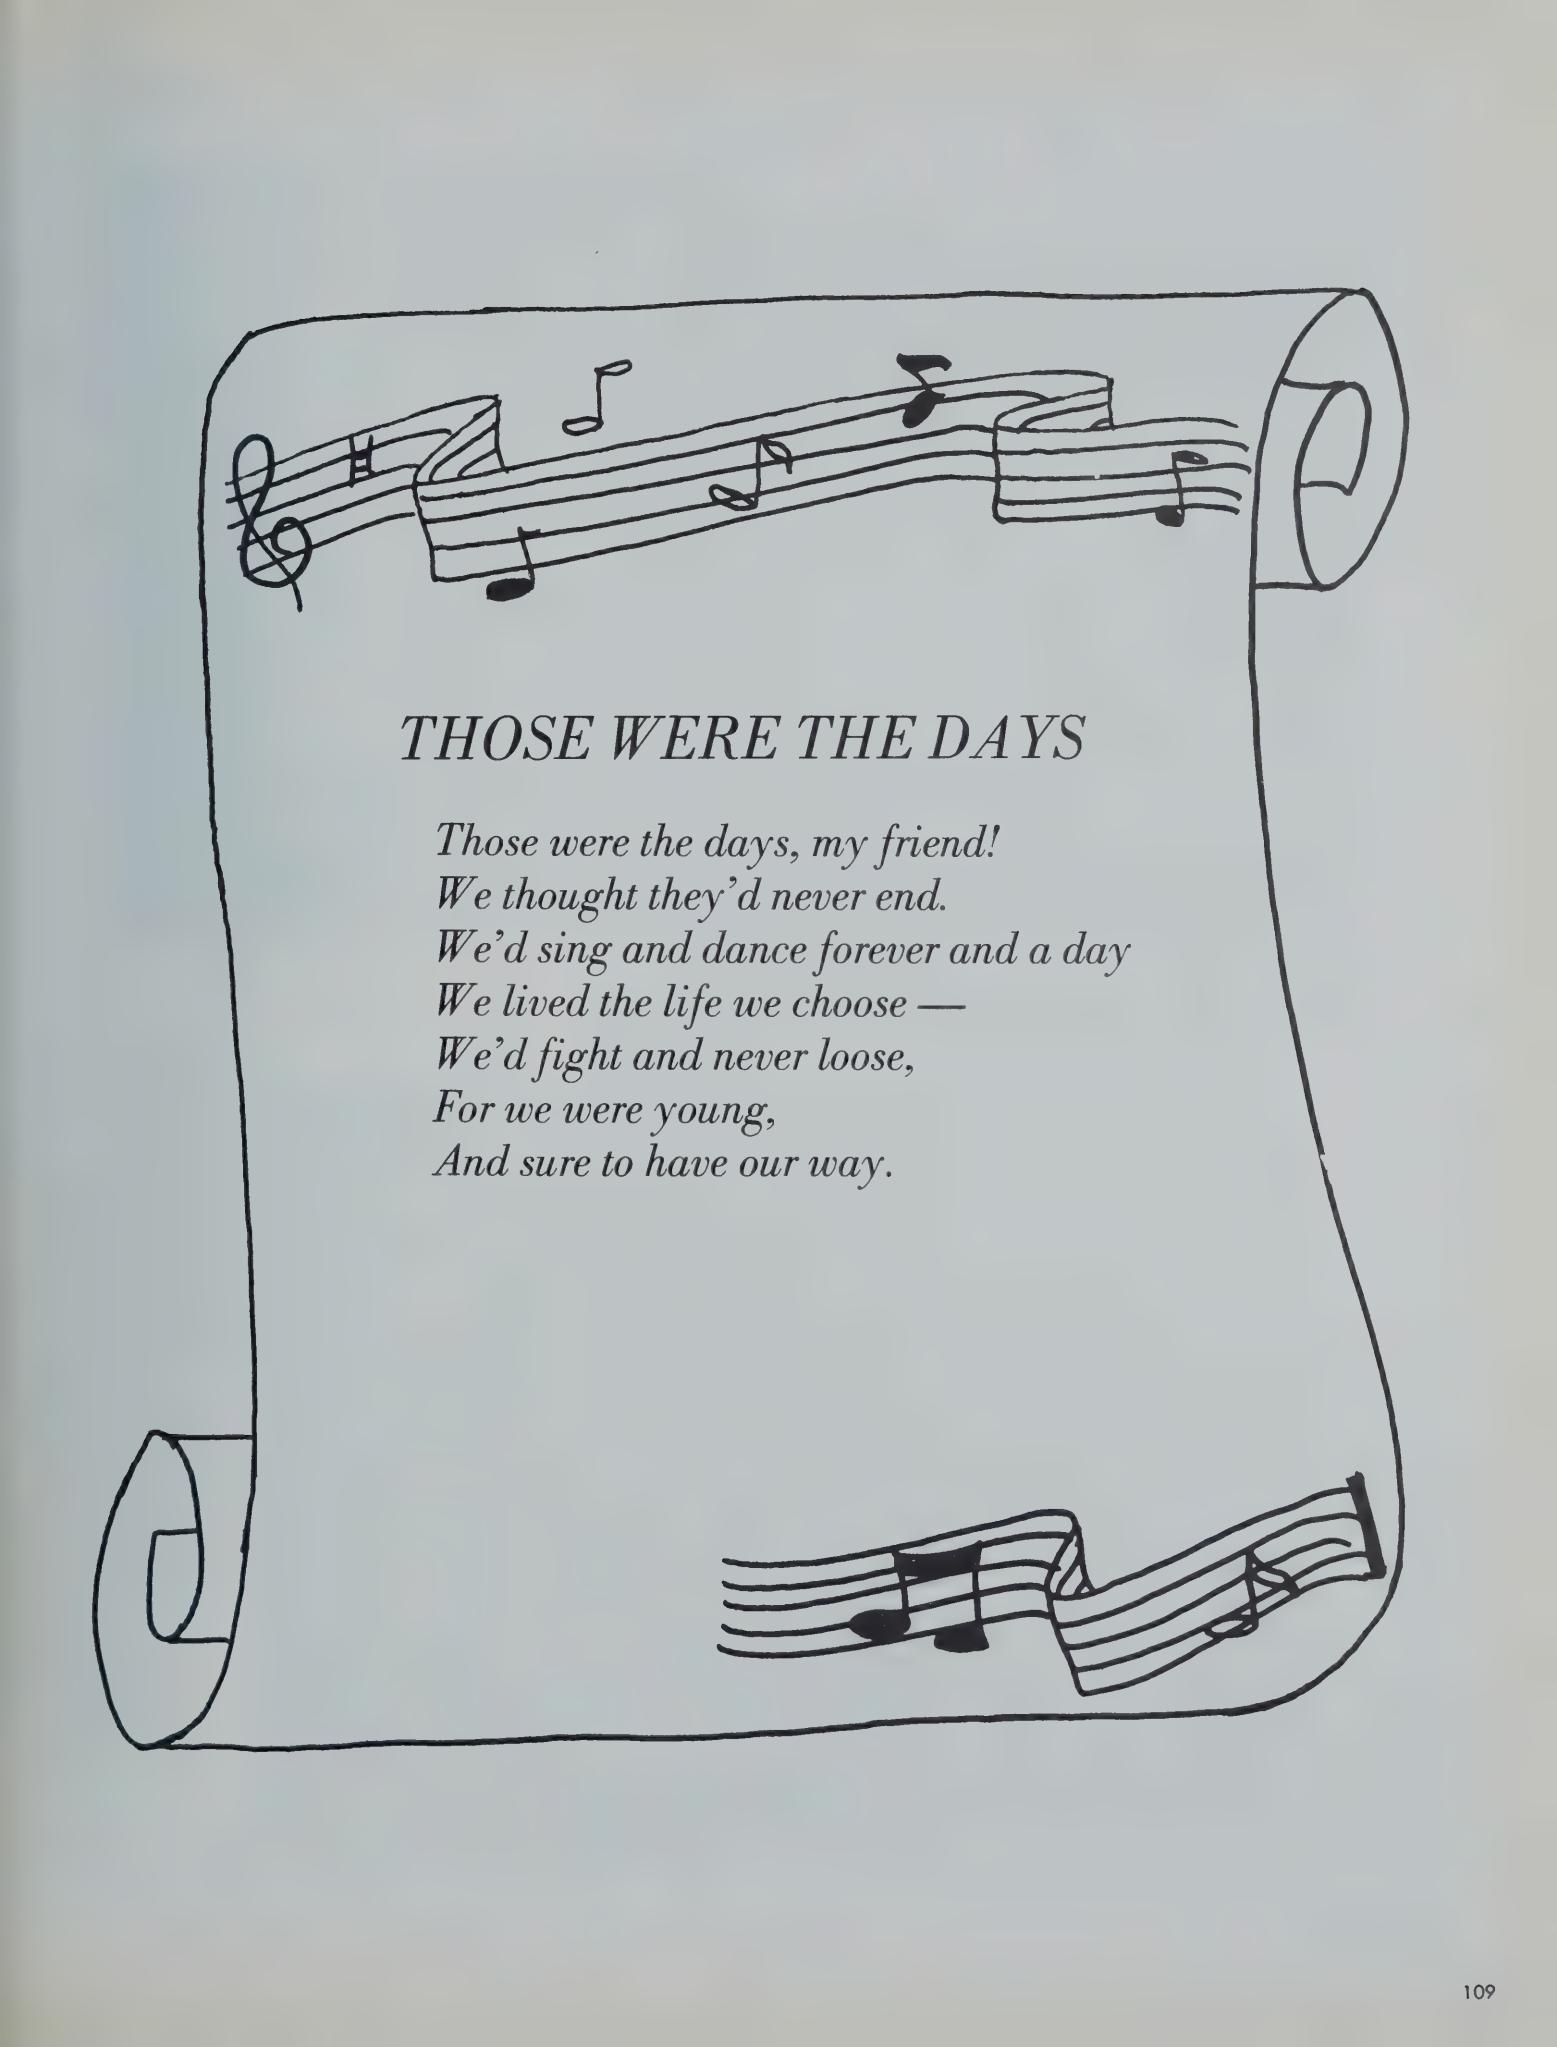

Our freedom has developed to the extent that we can enjoy and exercise independence to move in, out and around new experiences.

*W*hen in the course of school events, it becomes necessary for one class to dissolve the educational bonds which have connected them with one another and to assume the responsibilities of the "working" world (the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and God entitle them), an indecent respect for the opinions of fellow schoolmates requires that they should declare the events leading to this ultimate separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all D.C. students are created geniuses, that they are endowed by their imaginations with certain inalienable rights and among these are unlimited cuts, guaranteed A's and the pursuit of the opposite sex. That to secure these rights, student governments are instituted among learning bodies, deriving their abundant powers from the activity fees of the governed. That when any form of education becomes destructive to these ends, it is the right of the students to alter, ignore or abolish it, and to institute new education laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its classes in such form as to them shall seem most likely to affect their partying and their happiness.

Sobriety, indeed, will dictate that education long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly, all experience hath shown that students are more disposed to suffer, when inebriated, evils that are sufferable, than to hurt themselves attempting to abolish forms to which they are indifferent. But when a long train of hard work and boredom evinces a design to reduce them under absolute knowledge, it is their right and their duty to throw off such education and to provide new rules for their future fun.

Such has been the patient sufferance of this senior class, and such is now the necessity which constrains us to alter our former system of education. The history of the present senior class is a history of repeated injustices and diminished freedom, all having, in direct object, the establishment of an absolute learning experience within these students. To prove this let facts be submitted to a candid student body.

The Administration Has:

- Refused Us Our Right to a Parking Lot for Three Years,
- Refused Us the Right to Choose an Informed Advisor,
- Steadfastly Adhered to the Law of Returning Library Books Before Getting Our Grades,
- Contracted for a Gymnasium for Basketball Games in Places So Distant That It Caused Inconveniences for the Fans,
- Kept Among Us in Times of Peace and at Mixers — the Guards.
- Imposed Activity Fees Without Our Consent,
- Transported Us Beyond Ponds to Take Showers,
- Restricted Our Mobility to Two Buildings, and Finally,
- Are Now Merging Large Armies of Our Worst Enemy to Dwell Within the Hallowed Halls of Our Beloved Alma Mater.

In every stage of these grievances we have petitioned for improvements in the most humble terms; our repeated petitions have often been answered only by repeated injuries. Education, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define knowledge, is unfit to be the teacher of a student body. Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our alumni brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their alma mater to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our initiation and settlement here.

We, therefore, the representatives of the class of 1976, by the authority of the students of Dominican College, solemnly publish and declare this article of independence:

Renewed Freedom and

THANKS FOR THE MÉMORIES . . .

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. — We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. — That whenever any Form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. — Provision is made well dictat that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn that mankind are more disposed to suffer while evils are suffered than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pronouncing evasively the same Object, evinces a design to subvert in due order, it is their right to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. — Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of government. — The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all bearing in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this let Facts be submitted to a candid world. — He has refused his Assent to laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has foisted into his Government a palpable law of immorality and profaning importance, which, if pursued in other operation, the best should be obtained, and when so justified, to be entirely neglectful to attend to them. — He has refused to pay other Laws for the common moderation of large districts of people, which those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inseparable to them, and forsooth, to spend only. — He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the Depository of their Public Records, in the sole Purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures. — He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people. — He has infused for a long time after such dissolution, to cause others to be elected, whereby the legislative houses incapable of Impeachment have subservient to the People at large. In their session, he has countenancing in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within. — He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these states, for that purpose, by the laws for Naturalization of Foreigners refusing that others to encourage their migration better, and raising the conditions of Naturalization of Slaves. — He has obstructed the Administration of justice by refusing his Assent to laws for establishing judiciary power. — He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices and the amount and payment of their salaries. — He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither of late of Officers to harass our people and eat out their substance — He has kept arms as in times of peace, Bounding Armies, without the consent of our legislatures. — He has opined to make the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power. — He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unadorned by our laws, giving his Assent to their ill-contrived Legislation. — He has quarters large bodies of armed troops among us. — For parading them by a mock Trial, from place to place, for any Misdemeanor which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these states. — For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world. — For improving Taxes on us without our Consent. — For depriving us in many cases of the benefit of Trial by jury. — For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences. — For abolishing the free System of English Law in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies. — For taking away our charters, establishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our governments. — For suspending our own Legislatures and declaring themselves invested with Power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever. — He has abdicated Government here by declaring us out of their Protection and waging War against us. — He has plundered us in many ways, robbing us of our livelihood, bringing our towns into desolation, the loss of our people. — He is at this time transporting large bodies of foreign Mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with insensate cruelty & perfidy, paralleled in the most barbarous age and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation. — He has constrained our fellow citizens, taken captive on the high seas to bear Arms against their Country, to turn us the executioners of their friends and Brethren, to pollute themselves by their hands. — He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us and has massacred to bring into the inhabitants of our Country the merciful Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions. — In every part of this continent we have alternately suffered in the most humble terms. Our degraded Colonies have been encircled by repeated invasions. — No man whose character is thus marked by every act which may affect a Free State, like the acts of his people. — We have been wounding on attention to our brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislatures to extend an unnatural state jurisdiction over us. — We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. — We have appealed to their natural justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them to the loss of our common liberty to dismiss these impositions which would inevitably interrupt our convictions and correspondence. — They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of manliness. — We must therefore acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our separation and hold them as we hold the rest of mankind. Enemies in this, in these —

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name and by Authority of the good People of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be, Free and Independent States; that they are absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved, and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may, of Right do — And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the Protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.
